INSTRUCTIONS
Immediately following arraignment in superior court of a defendant charged with a felony or arraignment of a defendant by a municipal court judge sitting as a superior court judge, the court shall require the defendant to provide a right thumbprint on this form. In the event the defendant is convicted, this form shall be attached to the minute order reflecting the defendant's sentence and shall be permanently maintained in the court file. Please see Penal Code section 992 for further information, including when the defendant is physically unable to give a right thumbprint.
For a proper imprint and durable record, this form should be printed on page of Justice specifications: a 99 pound white tab card or 100 pound white through 0.0074 inch is acceptable). Paper smoothness should be 100–14 printed with the grain left to right.	tab stock 0.0070 inch thick (0.0066
